The Fund's investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses must be considered carefully before investing. Read it carefully before investing.

Mutual fund investing involves risk. Principal loss is possible. The Fund is non-diversified, meaning it may concentrate its assets in fewer individual holdings than a diversified fund. Therefore, the Fund is more exposed to individual stock volatility than a diversified fund. The Fund invests in foreign investments and foreign currencies which involve greater volatility and political, economic and currency risks and differences in accounting methods. These risks are greater for emerging markets. Investments in debt securities typically decrease in value when interest rates rise. This risk is usually greater for longer-term debt securities. Investments in lower-rated and non-rated securities presents a greater risk of loss to principal and interest than higher-rated securities.

Underlying Funds are subject to management and other expenses, which will be indirectly paid by the Fund. The Fund may invest in derivatives, which involve risks different from, or possibly greater than, the risks associated with investing directly in securities and other traditional investments. ABS, MBS and CMBS are subject to credit risk because underlying loan borrowers may default.

It includes funds with exposure to long and short positions in global equities or derivatives and is equally weighted. Alpha - measures the difference between an actual return for a stock or a portfolio and its equilibrium expected return.

One cannot invest directly in an index. Diversification does not guarantee a profit or protect from loss in a declining market. Correlation measures how much the returns of two investments move together over time. Absolute return strategies are not intended to outperform stocks and bonds during strong market rallies. An absolute return fund may not achieve its goals and may under-perform during periods of strong positive market performance.
